

CENTURION

NEW!

Introducing the Airpro™ Baseball Bump Cap

Providing comfort, safety and style

Comfort

All the main components in the Airpro Cap have been designed to provide maximum air circulation

- Innovatively designed shell and crown pad provide maximum air flow
- Premium breathable fabric provides constant evaporation and coolness.

Safety

The cap falling off or being knocked off is a thing of the past with this inspired new design

- Cap sits neatly into the nape of the neck providing improved head retention
- The new elastic strap allows for a level of adjustment without altering the position of the clasp
- Reflective features enhance safety and visibility.

Style

The new design will not only make you feel cool, you will look cool too

- Sleeker, sporty and professional look
- Hygienic and clean, cap can be washed at higher temperatures, shell and crown pad can be removed, separated and hand washed
- Available in various colours.

Approved to EN 812. Size range: 54 – 62cm.
